MORTGAGE TAX BILL AMENDED.

LOCALITIES PAYING TAX WILL RECEIVE ITS REVENUE.

Albany, March 7.—Senator Stranahan this morn-ing presented to the Senate amendments to his Mortgage Tax bill which provide for the complete return of all moneys collected under the proposed law to the localities from where they are collected, and expressed the belief that the change would remove any and all opposition that had developed toward his measure. The amendments provided that the Controller, who has charge of the collection of the stamp tax of one-half of 1 per cent, shall, when the tax is collected, return the amounts to the various counties, and the country treasurers shall then distribute the sum to the various cities, towns and villages within the said counties in proportion to the assessed valuation of property.

Senator Stranahan asked that the bill be recommitted, amended and reported forthwith and reprinted. Senator Elisworth, president pro tem, and leader of the majority, interposed an objection and declared that it was against the principle and purpose of the bill to amend it in the way Senator Stranahan suggested. A heated debate followed, in which Senator Elisworth declared that he would vote against the passage of the Mortgage Tax bill in any except its original form. The bill should pass, he said, in its present shape, so that the State could derive the benefit of the tax.

The amendments were adopted by a vote of $7 to 5, the bill remaining on the order of third reading.

supplies of water in the State, and devise means by which floods may be prevented. The members of the commission are to receive no compensation except for their necessary expenses. Section II of the bill reads as follows:

The commission when so appointed shall proceed at once to make such surveys and investigations as may be proper, to determine the causes of the overflow of the various rivers and water courses of the State, and to determine what, if anything, can be done to prevent such overflow.

The commission is to report to the legislature by March 1, 1903. The expenses of the commission, in-cluding the salary of a secretary and assistants, are not to exceed $15.000.

CANAL BILL STILL IN DOUBT.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Albany, March 7.-The anti-canal obstructionists in the Assembly achieved another temporary tri-umph this morning by deferring all action on Mr. good positions for CORONATION WEEK Weekes's $37,000,000 canal bill until next Tuesday, when it was made a special order. The bill came up on the order of second reading, and, despite the plea of Mr. Weekes that it be advanced, the bill was laid aside until Tuesday.

The Democrats from New-York have signified their intention to support the measure, and after the bill had been laid aside Mr. McKeown (Dem.), of Kings County, said: "The Democrats are for this bil, and prepared to fight for its passage now or at
